PASTOR'S DESK

From the Desk of Father Dan

Last weekend at my Masses, I mentioned the "missing calendars." For those of you who didn't hear the story, here's the latest.

A week or two before Christmas, several people asked, "Where are the calendars?" I called Egan-Ryan Funeral Service, who provides them to the parish. They began the detective work and found out that FedEx claimed it made 3 attempts to deliver the calendars, but the office always was closed. (The deliveries must have been done at Midnight!) As of the end of last week, Catholic Extension Society, who printed the calendars, said the shipment was somewhere on its way back to the printer. However, Catholic Extension said that to hurry up the delivery, it would reprint the calendars and send them right out.

Who knows? Maybe the 2024 calendars will be in the vestibule by this weekend. Last Saturday, we passed out a few extras that Egan-Ryan had on hand and gave to us. But I feel confident that very shortly we'll get the full shipment.

Have a blessed week.

- Father Dan

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

Helping a Single Mother Facing Eviction

"Blessed is the one who considers the poor. In the day of trouble, the Lord delivers him." Psalm 41:1

Many times, families in our community come to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) when there is nowhere else to turn. Every one of your gifts to us makes an immediate and life-changing difference for each family that we feed or assist to prevent rent evictions and utility shutoffs.

This past year, our St. Timothy Conference has partnered with other SVDP organizations and has assisted 130 families with their past-due rent and utilities through our home visit program. Most of these families were facing eviction after struggling to make their monthly rent and utility bills. One recent example was a single mother with a four-year-old daughter. The mother lost her job after she missed work due to number of medical issues associated with a liver disorder. This caused the family to fall behind on their rent and an eviction was filed. Stopping this eviction before it happened was critical. Evictions are a destabilizing event that can send a family into a cycle of financial and emotional turmoil. SVDP provided the rent assistance to stop eviction proceedings and supplied the family with food and other resources for additional assistance. The mother has since been approved for disability payments and should be fine going forward.

COATS FOR CHRISTMAS

We are very thankful for our parish members who participated in our Annual Coats for Christmas Giving. We were able to provide coats, gloves, hats, scarves, blankets and other winter items to the clients visiting the SVDP Clothing Distribution Center. Your support allows us to continue to provide resources to the people who need it most.

God's own goodness touches the world through our charitable acts. Thanks to all our SVDP contributors for making a real difference in the lives of the poor.
